

North Suburban Library District Photography Policy

Children and adults participating in North Suburban Library District's programs may be photographed or have their image captured by library staff members, newspaper or television reporters/photographers, or others involved with the program. These photographs may appear without compensation in library publications or on the library's web site, in newspapers or in productions, publications, or other printed or electronic materials related to the role and function of the North Suburban Library District. Parents who do not want their children photographed should notify library staff.

When photographs will be used with identities given, a permission form must be signed by the individual, or if a minor, the child's parent or guardian.
